“Look at that planet, next to the moon,” says Cosmos. “The small blue planet?” asks Cometa. “Astronauts live there,” says Cosmos.

“Oh, it’s blue and green!” says Cometa. “Three green parts are trees and plants. The blue part is ocean,” says Cosmos.

“The planet is called Earth. I want to go there one day,” says Cosmos. “Me, too,” says Cometa.

My Hobbies

40123 詹旋宇

I have multiple hobbies. These include playing the piano, baking, balloon twisting, and playing the volleyball. I think playing the piano is interesting and exciting, baking is relaxing and enjoyable, balloon twisting is super exciting and extraordinary and playing the volleyball is very interesting.

However, my mom thinks playing the piano is extremely boring and ordinary, my dad thinks Lego building is more exciting than balloon twisting, my friend thinks playing the volleyball is very boring and my brother doesn’t like baking at all.

Nevertheless, I learn many things from my hobbies. For example, baking teaches me how to follow the instructions, playing the piano teaches me how to play it perfectly, balloon twisting teaches me how to twist it properly, and playing the volleyball teaches me how to do the movement correctly. Lastly, I think my hobbies are the best and I love to do them in my free time.

What Did I Do In My Weekend

40323 謝惟晴

Hello! My name is Cherry. I'm very happy because my mom let my friends and me go to New Zealand. On that day, my friends and I stayed and played at the airport at seven o'clock. I saw two of my friends playing hide and seek. I asked them, "Can I play with you?", and they said, "Yes, sure!" So we just played together and soon everyone was going to get into the airplane. We slept, watched movies, and ate many foods. After 14 hours, we went outside of the airport. The wind was very strong, and some of my things fell on the ground. Just a few minutes later, we arrived at our hotel and it was time for bed.

In the next morning, we finished our breakfast and went to a very long and steep street. I walked and walked. My feet hurt very much, so I sat down to take a rest. Suddenly, a lot of people ran to the front and I just followed them. Soon we're in the front of the street.

The next day, we took the helicopter to go up to the mountain and I saw so much snow there. I built a snowman with my friends. Later, I sat on a boat and my mom said, "On the lake, there is some ice, and you can eat it. It's very yummy." So I ate it, and it was really sweet. At that night, we saw many stars, and it was very beautiful.

The next day, we needed to take the airplane and went back to Taiwan. I am very happy in Taiwan because my mom let me to visit New Zealand and I had a nice weekend.
